Research Papers

Under review

- A Secret Worth Keeping? Bid Cap Design in Budget-Constrained Procurement Auctions (with Lana Friesen and Ian A. MacKenzie)
- Hedonic Habits: The Empirical Content of Dynamic Hedonic Models

Research in Progress

- The Impacts of AI on Help Seeking: how private AI can substitute for socially costly human asking and alter advice-following and verification behaviour.
- Does AI Kill Deals?: whether role-specific AI advice to different parties can destroy bargaining viability even when each recommendation is locally coherent.
- Supernormal Food Demand: a structural framework for food demand in which vivid benefits and shrouded costs can generate excess demand and a wedge between observed choice and welfare.
- Behavioural Consensus Building: how public deliberation and social pressure can create norm cascades that suppress scrutiny rather than improve information aggregation.
- Modern Slavery: a decision-theoretic analysis of risky migration and trafficking vulnerability under uncertainty (with Ian Jewitt).
- The Effects of Algorithmic Exposure in Media Markets: dynamic demand, limited attention, recommendations, and habit formation in media markets.
- Pandora's Box with Competition: strategic search, inefficient stopping, and equilibrium distortions in competitive exploration (with Augustus Smith).
